Presents:

“My Passion for Photography” by Will Cheung FRPS

www.williamcheung.co.uk

Will Cheung FRPS has over 30 years working in photographic magazines and is currently editor of Photography News, a monthly newspaper which is unique in its market because it is free.

Will’s photographic interests are diverse and he specialises in being a non-specialist but his first love is black & white photography and he still enjoys using film, although most of his output is digital. Also, while he uses editing software, Will prefers to compose and expose as best he can at the taking stage rather than work too hard on the computer.

His current projects include the DLR (Docklands Light Railway) and the country’s working piers.
